Antitrust Policy Notice

- › Linux Foundation meetings involve participation by industry competitors, and it is the intention of the Linux Foundation to conduct all of its activities in accordance with applicable antitrust and competition laws. It is therefore extremely important that attendees adhere to meeting agendas, and be aware of, and not participate in, any activities that are prohibited under applicable US state, federal or foreign antitrust and competition laws.
- › Examples of types of actions that are prohibited at Linux Foundation meetings and in connection with Linux Foundation activities are described in the Linux Foundation Antitrust Policy available at <http://www.linuxfoundation.org/antitrust-policy>. If you have questions about these matters, please contact your company counsel, or if you are a member of the Linux Foundation, feel free to contact Andrew Updegrave of the firm of Gesmer Updegrave LLP, which provides legal counsel to the Linux Foundation.

- Current Status
  - The latest draft of the next version of OpenChain Specification can be found here:
https://wiki.linuxfoundation.org/\_media/openchain/OpenChainSpec-2.1.draft.MarkUp.pdf
  - Our objective is to make only minor clarification changes over version 2.0 while we wait for ISO adoption (currently in progress). We discussed a half dozen items posted on the specification issue list at the Open Source Summit, North American F2F OpenChain meeting:
<https://github.com/OpenChain-Project/Specification/issues>
  - After discussing the various open issues we decided to make only one minor change: Because the terms “Software Staff” and “Program Participants” were used interchangeably in the spec, it was decided to replace each use of “Software Staff” with “Program Participants” which is more consistent with ISO terminology.
- This means we have some “issues left behind” until the next release. Check Open and Closed Issues on the GitHub link above. Comments or concerns?
